RESPONSIVE PRAYER FOR TRINITY SUNDAY

O blessed Trinity, in whom we know the Maker of all things seen and unseen, in you we recognize the Savior of all both near and far.

By your Spirit enable us to offer genuine and grateful worship your divine majesty, so that with all the company of heaven we may magnify your glorious name, saying:

Holy, holy, holy. Glory to you, O Lord most high! Amen.

*THE PEACE The Peace of our Lord Jesus Christ be with you! And also with you!

*OPENING HYMN #1 “Holy, Holy, Holy! Lord God Almighty!”

PRAYER OF CONFESSION (in unison)

Rev. Anna Grace Claunch

God our Creator, Redeemer, and Sustainer, we confess that we have failed to love you with all our heart, soul, and mind; and to love our neighbor as ourselves.

We fail to heed your call, we stray from your way, and we are quick to follow other gods.

Have mercy on us, O Lord. Forgive our sin and raise us to new life, so that we may serve you faithfully and give honor to your holy name... (Silent prayer)

ASSURANCE OF FORGIVENESS

*GLORIA PATRI #581

Glory be to the Father, and to the Son, and to the Holy Ghost; as it was in the beginning, is now, and ever shall be, world without end. Amen, amen

PRAYER FOR ILLUMINATION (in unison)

Father, Son, and Spirit, through you all things are created and all things are revealed. As we read and proclaim your holy Word this morning, we ask you to fill us with your wisdom and a renewed vision of your glory, so that we may always serve and praise you, one God, forever and ever, Amen.

from rock and tempest, fire, and foe, protect them where-so-e'er they go;
thus, evermore shall rise to Thee, glad hymns of praise from land and sea.*

PRAYER OF THE PEOPLE AND THE LORD'S PRAYER

Rev. Claunch

Our Father, who art in Heaven, hallowed be thy name. Thy kingdom come; thy will be done on earth as it is in Heaven. Give us this day our daily bread, and forgive us our debts as we forgive our debtors. Lead us not into temptation, but deliver us from evil. For thine is the kingdom, and the power and glory forever. Amen.

MENTIONS AND ANNOUNCEMENTS

- No Sunday School today.
- Youth Group End of the Year Pool Party. Wednesday June 5th at the Bowerman's home, 15 Bishop Place, Larchmont. Questions? Email agclaunch@lacny.org.

On this Memorial Day weekend, we at Larchmont Avenue Church remember with reverence and gratitude those who have given their lives in service to others and in defense of our country. At the same time, we offer our hopeful and fervent prayers for all of our brothers and sisters who are currently living under the tragic cloud of war. Like the prophets of old, we cling to the promise of scripture that someday our swords will be beaten into plowshares, and spears into pruning hooks (Isaiah 2:4). May God bless you all on this weekend of grateful remembrance and hope.

 All thy works shall praise thy name, in earth and sky and sea.

Much of the imagery of this hymn comes from Revelation 4:2–11, which its author, an Anglican bishop, knew as a reading appointed for Trinity Sunday. The tune, written specifically for this text, reinforces the Trinitarian theme by strong dependence on the D-major triad.

ho - ly,

Ho - ly, ho - ly, ho - ly! mer - ci - ful and might - y!

To God Be the Glory

1 To God be the glo - ry; great things he has done!
2 Great things he has taught us; great things he has done,

So loved he the world that he gave us his Son,
and great our re - joic - ing through Je - sus the Son;

who yield - ed his life an a - tone - ment for sin, but pur - er and high - er and great - er will be and o - pened the life - gate that all may go in.

our won - der, our trans - port, when Je - sus we see.

This American gospel song became popular in England in the late 19th century, then returned to this country in the mid-20th century with the Billy Graham crusades. Its continuing popularity may well be due to the freedom from subjective considerations in its praise of God.
