

LAC Men's Bible Study 2024-25

All are welcome!

When: Thursday (every 2 weeks) @ 8:30 a.m.

Where: Lindsley Room (beverages and bagels)

“Men’s Bible Study” is market-tested to be the most boring name possible for whatever it is that we do.

We start from little prior knowledge, read a couple of scriptural passages, and then see what our varied backgrounds, ideologies, and beliefs make out of what we’ve read. Occasionally, we might arrange a co-ed road trip to a museum or a play.

Every two weeks, I pick a topic and some brief readings from the Bible or elsewhere, arrange for coffee, bagels, and juice -- and then let the cats loose: No herding is required or possible. The talk can go anywhere – but it stays in Lindsley Room. Mostly we have a good time and stretch our brains. When we disagree, we do it civilly and even with humor.

If you are an adult male, can read and talk, you are welcome!
